Pink Book

Dragon Bay

First day:

1. Page 4: Point to the letters and say the sound for each letter.
2. Page 5: Sound out and read the green words.
3. Read the red words (Remember you can't Fred a red.)
These words can't be sounded out.
4. Read the story and stop at page 20.

Encourage your child to sound out all the words that they are reading.

Second day:

- Read the story again.
- Read the questions to your child and encourage them to find and say the answer.
The answers don't need to be written down.

Page 9: Where did the dragon lay an egg?

Page 10: Why do you think the dragon put the egg on the rocks?

Page 12: What did the children want to do after the story?

Page 19: Which part of the baby dragon came out of the egg first?
